Colusa County Welfare to Work Program

The Colusa County Department of Health and Human Services offers the CalWORKs Welfare to Work program, designed to support low-income families in achieving economic self-sufficiency.

This program provides a range of services, including job training, career counseling, and educational opportunities, aimed at helping participants secure stable employment. By focusing on individualized support and skill development, the program strives to empower families to transition from public assistance to long-term financial independence.

Families that get home visits have said that they find information about parenting helpful and that they really enjoy the activities that the home visitors bring to every visit. They like that the supplies for the activities are available to keep after the visit so that they can continue to play with their children between visits. The home visitors can also help improve your family's health and wellness, and connect you to what is available in your community.

FOR A CHANCE TO RECEIVE A $50 INCENTIVE, TAKE THE SURVEY

This Client Satisfaction Survey will gauge your satisfaction with the CalWORKs program and allow you to make suggestions to improve it. Please take the survey if you have recently completed Orientation, a SAR 7, or signed a plan. Surveys received will be used as a way for the state to initiate changes to enhance your CalWORKs experience. You can also opt into being contacted by your County Welfare Department to discuss any of your survey responses.
