WINNING, TIE, RUN-OFF AND TOP TWO CANDIDATES NONPARTISAN CANDIDATES

CANDIDATE RECEIVES MAJORITY VOTE

Any candidate for a nonpartisan office who at a primary election receives votes on a majority of all the ballots cast for candidates for that office shall be elected to that office. Where two or more candidates are to be elected to a given office and a greater number of candidates receive a majority than the number to be elected, those candidates shall be elected who secure the highest votes of those receiving a majority, and equal in number to the number to be elected.

Where a candidate has been elected to a nonpartisan office at the primary election that office shall not appear on the ballot at the ensuing general election, notwithstanding the death, resignation, or other disqualification of the candidate at a time subsequent to the primary election.

EC 8140

NO CANDIDATE RECEIVES MAJORITY VOTE

If no candidate received a majority of votes, the top two candidates will run off in the general election.

EC 8141

TIE VOTE

In the case of a tie vote, nonpartisan candidates receiving the same number of votes shall be candidates at the ensuing general election if they qualify pursuant to Section 8141 whether or not there are more candidates at the general election than prescribed by this article. In no case shall the tie be determined by lot.

EC 8142(a)

VOTER NOMINATED CANDIDATES

TOP TWO CANDIDATES ON GENERAL BALLOT

Except as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 8142, only the candidates for a voter-nominated office who receive the highest or second highest number of votes cast at the primary election shall appear on the ballot as candidates for that office at the ensuing general election. More than one candidate with the same party preference designation may participate in the general election pursuant to this subdivision. Notwithstanding the designation made by the candidate pursuant to Section 8002.5, no candidate for a voter-nominated office shall be deemed to be the official nominee for that office of any political party, and no party is entitled to have a candidate with its party preference designation participate in the general election unless that candidate is one of the candidates receiving the highest or second highest number of votes cast at the primary election.

EC 8141.5

TIE VOTE

(b) In the case of a tie vote among candidates at a primary election for a voter-nominated office, the following applies: (1) All candidates receiving the highest number of votes cast for any candidate shall be candidates at the ensuing general election whether or not there are more candidates at the general election than prescribed by this article. (2) Notwithstanding Section 8141.5, if a tie vote among candidates results in more than one primary candidate qualifying for the general election pursuant to subdivision (a), candidates receiving fewer votes shall not be candidates at the general election, even if they receive the second highest number of votes cast. (3) If only one candidate receives the highest number of votes cast but there is a tie vote among two or more candidates receiving the second highest number of votes cast, each of those second-place candidates shall be a candidate at the ensuing general election along with the candidate receiving the highest number of votes cast, regardless of whether there are more candidates at the general election than prescribed by this article. (4) In no case shall the tie be determined by lot.

EC 8142(b)

RUN-OFF CANDIDATES FOR GENERAL ELECTION (If applicable)

07/13/2025-08/07/2025

(Nov. candidate filing period)

RUN-OFF ELECTION

CANDIDATE STATEMENT OF QUALIFICATIONS
